(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

RALEIGH, N. C., January 23.—Fully five hundred people heard Lie arguiment this afternoon before the Committee on Propositions and Grievances on the London or Anti-Saloon League bill and the Watts bill to regulate the whiskey traffic in North Carolina. Great enthusiasm was manifested by anti-saloonlats in the audience. The hearing was in the Senate Chamber.

The London bill puts liquor out of the State, except where expressly voted in towns, no distilleries being allowed in rural districts at all. The Watts bill restrict distilleries and saloons to incorporated towns, and provides for elections as to dispensaries or prohibition.

J. W. Bailey, of Raleigh; Dr. Swindell, of Goldsbore; Dr. Beaman, of Durham, and Dr. McKillvie, of Charlotte, were among the advocates of the London bill.
It was opposed by T. C. Guthrie, of Charlotte. The hearing will be continued to-morrow. There are hundreds of people here from all sarts of the State, working for or against these bills.

TO ALLOW REMARRIAGE

Clergymen in North Carolina Stirred Over Mr. Baldwin's Bill-Other Measures of Importance That

Were Offered.

RALEIGH, N. C., January 28.—The most notable bill in either branch of the Legislature to-day was that by Mr. Baldwin, of Winston, to allow both husband and wife in cases of diverce to remarry. It passed second reading, and, on objection by Mr. Henderson, went over until to-morrow for third. The vote was 25 for and 10 against the bill.

Mr. Henderson was especially bitter in opposition, declaring the tendency to be to drag North Caroling, down to the lowest standard of civilisation. He quoted at length from Dr. Ware's sermon Sunday at Centenary Church, Winston, denouncing the bill. On the other hand, a number of ministers, including Dr. Hurfam, of the Baptit, Church, were quoted as advocating it. The oill is sure to pass final reading to-morrow.

LOCAL OPTION BILL.

Among the bills introduced in the Senate was one by Mr. Woodard to amend the local option act so as to permit "the establishment of local dispensaries wherever desired by the majority of the qualified voters in the locality to be affected," It begins with a preamble reciting that much legislative time is now consumed with local questions and the Democratic policy is to lot the people decide their local matters. The bill provides that upon a petition of one-third of the qualified voters of a town, township of county the county commissioners shall call an election on the Tuesday after the first Monday in June on years when the General Assembly meets, when the qualified voters shall cast ballots, "dispensary" or "license." If "dispensary" carries, then no liquor license shall on the bodies required to be buried at public expense and those who suffer death under law for crime. These bodies are to be sent to the colleges according to the number of students in such colleges. It exempts the bodies of those who die in homes for the aged and infirm, insane asylums, solders' home, and such as are claimed by relatives.
